Favor Was Appreciated

They say country is a dying amenity. On the 27th inst., a young gentleman in Kansas City recently closed an unusually long conversation as follows: "Thanks for listening."

DARING ATTEMPT TO FLEE PRISON FOILED

British Warden Thwarted Sensational Jailbreak.

Cowes, Isle of Wight—A prison warden's decision to mail a letter at seven o'clock in the evening probably frustrated one of the most daring and most carefully planned attempts ever made to get out of Parkhurst prison, here.

Two men, George Taylor and one Jackson, were concerned in the attempt, which, but for the warden's quick action, would almost certainly have been successful.

Taylor was described in a sensational case at the Old Bailey, London, in May, 1927, as "a professional black-matter, an associate of thieves, and a gang leader."

He was sentenced to the penal servitude for life for his part in what the judge described as "the worst case of blackmail I have ever known."

He comes of a good family, is well educated, and speaks several languages.

He was a housebreaker, a man Jackson was in trouble with the police, having tried to escape before.

As a result of this attempt and the fact that he had been broken into jail, Jackson was outside his cell.

For three years, he had suffered with terrible agony in my stomach, everything I ate caused me pain.

No matter how careful I was, I could not get rid of the pain. It was a constant torment.
